About Savannah's Organic Ranch Organic Ranch

Savannah Sachen was an amazing little girl from Aliso Viejo, California who touched the hearts of all the people she knew. Daily, we were amazed by her constant smile, her gentleness, and her wisdom and concern for everyone besides herself; traits that made her truly an inspiration to us and so many others. Savannah's dream began while she herself battled an extremely rare and aggressive cancer of her heart. Savannah's Organic Ranch has been created to continue the legacy of Savannah's passion for people, animals and nature by educating children and adults alike on the benefits of organic foods and farming to our bodies, our fellow living creatures, and our planet. This award has been created to honor children in our community who reach out to help others and give with their whole hearts in ways big and small!
